

The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Faculty of Law
Conference on Teaching and Learning in Law – “Directions in Legal Education”
3-4 June 2016 (Friday - Saturday)

Friday, 3 June 2016
Registration and Opening (Moot Court, 5/F Lee Shau Kee Building)
1:00 - 2:00 pm – Registration & Coffee
2:00 - 2:30 pm – Opening Address by The Hon. Mr. Justice Poon, JA , Court of Appeal of the High Court
2:35 - 3:20 pm – Keynote 1 : Disintermediation: the art of good business and the art of learning justice by Prof. Paul Maharg , Australian National University
3:20 - 3:50 pm – Afternoon Tea
3:50 – 4:55 pm - Parallel Sessions 1 (3/F Lee Shau Kee Building)
Group 1: Training for the Profession I (Chair: Mr. Jeremy Dein QC ) (Room 308, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 2: Fostering Socially Aware Students and Teachers (Chair: Dr. Angela Melville ) (Room 306, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 3: Technology Enhanced Learning (Chair: Mr. Alan Gibb ) (Room 304, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 4: Language and Learning (Chair: Mr. Denis Edwards ) (Room 302, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 5: The History and Values of Legal Education (Chair: Prof. Michael Lower ) (Room 301, Lee Shau Kee Building)
Prof. Jane Ching , “Riding madly off in all directions”: Consistency and convergence in professional legal education	Prof. Natalie Skead, Ms. Kate Galloway, Prof. Mary Heath, Prof. Anne Hewitt, Prof. Mark Israel, and Prof. Alex Steel , “Building the capacity of sessional law teachers to meet the changing demands of legal education”	Prof. Lutz-Christian Wolff , Legal education without teaching?	Prof. Christoph Hafner, Mr. Jack Burke, Prof. Katherine Lynch, Prof. Anne Scully-Hill and Dr. Rajesh Sharma , An interdisciplinary project to developing a digital multimedia resource to meet law students’ legal English needs: Findings, progress and resources	Prof. Malcolm Merry , Lessons from history
Ms. Deborah Ankor and Ms. Tania Leiman , Legal education and adaptive change in a disruptive era	Dr. Prashant Desai , Legal education in imparting social justice	Prof. Mimi Zou , “Micro-modules under the microscope: in and beyond flipped classrooms”	Mr. Christian D. Pangilinan , Developing an English-language integrated legal writing and research program for non-native English speaking students	Mr. Paul McKeown , Values in clinical legal education
Prof. Anne-Marie Cotter , Teaching law for the real world: Bridging the gap between law school and the legal profession	Prof. Amy Barrow and Ms. Joy Chia , Beyond the clinic: The role of socio-legal education in cultivating public interest lawyers	Prof. Paula Hodgson and Ms. Betty Hui , MOOCs: Potentials in extending learning experiences	Dr. Muamar Salameh , Development of legal education in Arab countries - Evaluation of the bilingual programme in Arab countries	Ms. Anne Carver , Professorial authority vs freedom of expression in the classroom – the professor is always right (Film)
5:00 – 6:30 pm - Cocktail Reception in Courtyard of CUHK Art Museum

For speaker abstracts and biographies, please refer to the conference website (<http://webapp1.law.cuhk.edu.hk/2016conference/0603/conf/abstracts.php>).

Saturday, 4 June 2016

Morning Sessions (Moot Court, 5/F Lee Shau Kee Building)

9:00 - 9:30 am – Registration & Coffee

9:30 - 10:35 am – Plenary Session: Directions in Legal Education (Chair: Prof. Paul Maharg)

- Prof. Stacy Caplow (via Skype), Clinical legal education in the year 2026: Looking back at the last decade
- Prof. Rick Glofcheski, Flipping the Tort class: an adventure in learning
- Prof. Lisa Webley, Researching legal education: Methods, outcomes and directions

10:35 - 11:05 am – Morning Tea

11:05 - 11:50 am – Keynote 2: Legal education in Myanmar by Prof. Mar Yee Khin, Yangon University

11:50 am – 12:55 pm – Parallel Sessions 2 (3/F Lee Shau Kee Building)

Group 1: The Role of Law Schools (Chair: Dr. Esther Erlings ) (Room 308, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 2: Human Rights in Legal Education (Chair: Prof. Swati Jhaveri ) (Room 306, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 3: Teaching and Learning Methods (Chair: Prof. Steven Gallagher ) (Room 304, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 4: Engaged Learning: Simulation and the Community of Inquiry (Chair: Ms. Queenie Lai ) (Room 302, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 5: Clinical Legal Education (Chair: Mr. Peter Barnes ) (Room 301, Lee Shau Kee Building)
Prof. Michael Peil and Prof. Nima Dorji , “Designing a GNH-centric law curriculum: The view from Bhutan”	Prof. Kris Gledhill , Teaching human rights as a topic for litigation	Prof. Daniel Pascoe , How can legal education speak to the discovery enriched curriculum?	Prof. Wilson Chow and Prof. Michael Ng , Simulation in legal education and training: From adoption to adaptation	Ms. Lindsay Ernst , Internalizing international human rights commitments through community legal education (“street law”)
Prof. Sanoj Rajan , Beyond the classroom teaching: The social responsibility of law schools in India	Mr. Marc Limon , Think tanks – practical education by bridging the academia-policymaking divide	Mr. Richard Hedlund , Lessons from problem-based learning at York Law School	Ms. Queenie Lai , Active and simulation-based learning for future corporate lawyers: Client pitch, role-play and other ideas	Mr. Azan Marwah , “The ideal clinical law student” – how law schools can arm their students to take full advantage of clinical legal experience
Dean Camille Cameron , The future of legal education: Taking the long view in the face of flux, uncertainty and the often conflicting views of educators and regulators	Prof. Mohammad Mahdi Meghdadi and Ms. Boshra Sadat Emami , Human rights education, with an emphasis on Islamic teachings and clinical legal education	Mr. Saru Arifin , The implementation of problem based learning method in Indonesian law school teaching and learning process	Prof. Michael Lower , Blended learning: Using Blackboard to create a community of inquiry	Mr. Isaac Shaffer and Mr. Adam Severson , Law in action: A case study in clinical legal education in Hong Kong

12:55 – 2:15 pm – Lunch in the Foyer, 1/F Lee Shau Kee Building

Saturday, 4 June 2016

Afternoon Sessions

2:15 - 3:45 pm – The Big Debate: Directions in Legal Education (Moderator: Mr. Richard Morris) (Moot Court, 5/F Lee Shau Kee Building)

- The Hon. Mr. Justice John L Saunders, SBS
- Prof. Christopher Gane
- Prof. Michael Hor
- Prof. Geraint Howells
- Prof. Emeritus Mike McConville
- Mr. Jeremy Dein QC
- Mr. Icarus Ho Shing Chan
- Ms. Brigitte Kiu
- Ms. Patricia Lam
- Mr. Siegfried Sin

3:45 – 3:55 pm Group Photo (Foyer, 1/F Lee Shau Kee Building)

3:55 - 4:15 pm – Afternoon Tea (Foyer, 1/F Lee Shau Kee Building)

4:15 – 5:20 pm - Parallel Sessions 3 (3/F Lee Shau Kee Building)

Group 1: Teaching Students from Different Backgrounds (Chair: Prof. Lisa Webley ) (Room 308, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 2: Working with Primary Sources (Chair: Prof. Jane Ching ) (Room 306, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 3: Training for the Profession II (Chair: Prof. Luke Marsh ) (Room 304, Lee Shau Kee Building)	Group 4: Approaches in Legal Education (Chair: Prof. Michael Peil ) (Room 302, Lee Shau Kee Building)
Dr. Angela Melville , Educational disadvantages and indigenous law students: Lifestyle choice or systemic barriers?	Mr. Denis Edwards , Teaching rules: Legislation and the law curriculum	Dr. Gigimon VS , Legal education: Looking to an uncharted future	Prof. Swati Jhaveri , The pressure to innovate: Whither legal education?
Ms. Patty Kamvounias , Teaching and learning in law outside the law school: Challenges and opportunities	Prof. Eric Johnson , Teaching doctrine directly: Inverting the casebook method	Ms. Virginia Tam , The role of lawyering skills	Ms. Jenny Chan , Group exercises for assessments in legal education – sounds fancy, but can it work?
Mr. Jason Buhi , Preparing Chinese law students for global practice: My experience teaching lawyering skills at the Peking University School of Transnational Law in Shenzhen	Ms. Yingxiang Long , Prepare your students to become innovative private lawmakers: For future international commercial lawyers  (This presentation is funded by the Chinese National Social Science Foundation, Project No. 14BFX076, Subject in “The Civil Law Protection of Consumer Rights in Service Industry”).	Mr. Peter Barnes , If you want to be a good lawyer, don't (only) study law	Prof. Sarah Wilson (via skype), Teaching history in the modern law school: Some perspectives on the importance of historical approaches for the study of law in the twenty-first century

* 5:30pm – Shuttle Bus to Hyatt Regency Hong Kong, Sha Tin for Speakers/Invited Guests to Attend the Conference Dinner (Covered Carpark at 1/F Lee Shau Kee Building)

* 5:30-6:30pm – Shuttle Bus to University Station for All Other Participants (Covered Carpark at 1/F Lee Shau Kee Building)

Closing Remarks & Conference Dinner (Hyatt Regency Hong Kong, Sha Tin)

7:00 – 7:10 pm – Closing Remarks by Prof. Christopher Gane, Dean of CUHK Faculty of Law

7:10 pm – Conference Dinner for Speakers and Invited Guests